We are required by the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the Code) to make this communication and the announcement to which it refers available to you

Dear Colleague,

Announcement regarding Treatt PLC (the Company)

On 29 April 2026, an announcement was made (the Announcement) regarding an offer from Döhler Finance Management B.V. (Döhler) to acquire the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the Company not already owned by Döhler (the Offer). It is intended that the Offer will be implemented by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006.

This communication is an alert to the existence of the Announcement and should not to be taken as a summary of the information in the Announcement and should not be regarded as a substitute for reading the Announcement in full.

The Announcement has put the Company into an "offer period" under the Code.

The formal offer documentation providing further information about the Offer will be made available to you in due course, subject to the restrictions on distribution described in the Announcement.

In accordance with the Code, a copy of the Announcement and all other information, documents and announcements relating to the Offer will remain available during the course of the offer period on the Company's website at <https://www.treatt.com/investor-relations>. For the avoidance of doubt, the content of the Company's website is not incorporated into, and does not form part of, this communication.

The Company wishes to inform you that, under Rule 25.9 of the Code, you are entitled to have a separate opinion from your employee representatives (if any) on the effects of the Offer on your employment appended to the scheme document (if received in good time before publication) or otherwise published in accordance with the requirements of Rule 25.9 of the Code. The Company will be responsible for the costs reasonably incurred by the employee representatives in obtaining advice required for the verification of the information contained in any such opinion.

This notice is being given in accordance with Rule 2.11(d) of the Code.

Yours faithfully,

Vijay Thakrar, Chair

Manprit Randhawa, CFO and Interim Group Managing Director

For and on behalf of

Treatt PLC

Directors' Responsibility Statement

*The Directors of the Company (the Directors) accept responsibility for the information contained in this communication (including any expressions of opinion). Provision of addresses, electronic addresses and other details

Please be aware that addresses, electronic addresses and certain other information provided by you for the receipt of communications from the Company may be provided to Döhler during the offer period as required under Section 4 of Appendix 4 of the Code.

Disclosure requirements of the Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.
